THE AMERICAN POLICE CANINE ASSOCIATION

Presents

2017 National Training Conference

Real World Based Training for Law Enforcement K-9 Units

September 24-29, 2017

Vincennes, Indiana

Welcome to the American Police Canine Association 2017 National Conference!

Our law enforcement profession understands and values the importance of ongoing training and education in order to carry out our duties to "Protect and Serve." Law enforcement is an ever evolving and changing profession with the introduction of new technologies, training methods and case law decisions. We in law enforcement operate in a transitional environment in which we must stay current with in order to uphold the laws we are sworn to protect.

The 2017 A.P.C.A. National Conference is committed to providing its attendees with the highest caliber of training, professional instructors and lecture presenters in the law enforcement K-9 field. The conference will feature real world scenario based deployment training to include: tactical scenario training with SWAT Units, night felony K-9 bailout scenarios with simulation weapons, felony K-9 vehicle extractions, helicopter deployments in rural environments, watercraft K-9 deployments, basic and advanced K-9 firearms courses, basic K-9 problem solving and training will be offered in narcotics detection, explosives detection, obedience, aggression control, building search, tracking, area search and article search.

This year's national conference will be hosted in Knox County. These departments have prepared an exceptionally organized conference designed to meet your training needs and objectives. This conference promises to offer a diversity of training opportunities, professional networking, classroom presentations by nationally renown speakers, exceptional unlimited meal buffets, impressive lodging accommodations, and forty (40) hours of law enforcement training credit.

Lodging accommodations for this year's National Conference is the Holiday Inn Express, 2720 Battery Road, Vincennes, Indiana, 47591 which includes a hot breakfast buffet daily.

This is a week of training offerings you definitely do not want to miss. We look forward to seeing each of you in September.

Michael Johnson, President
American Police Canine Association
